TWIRL AROUND THE WORLD AT THE CHILDREN'S FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL

INDIANAPOLIS – (April 30, 2009) The 38th Annual Children's Folk Dance Festival is your gateway to experience global cultures through the art of dancing. Hundreds of children will perform dances from around the world they have learned over the past several months.

Retired teachers and parent volunteers along with music, physical education, classroom, art and resource teachers taught the children the dances in workshops held from January through April. This annual festival showcases dances from a variety of countries including Turkey, Israel, Romania, Germany, Russia, Italy, South Africa, United States and China.
